

AAUW Lehigh Valley Hosts Talk Back on FAKE NEWS

More than 125 members and community friends made up the respectful audience at the Nov. 4 Forum on Fake News: The Media in a Post-Truth World. Moderator Deborah Musselman presented audience questions and made sure Morning Call columnist Bill White and political reporter for THE CAUCUS Paula Knudsen had time to give thoughtful answers. Audience interest was high with questions being submitted throughout the hour.

As a follow up to that meeting there will be an informal “Talk Back” on Tuesday November 14, 2017. Members and the public will have the opportunity to interact with one another and further discuss the media and how it operates today. We will meet at Wesley Church, 2540 Center Street 18017. The discussion starts at 7 pm and we will finish by 8:15 pm.

Drive in to the main parking lot of the church. Enter through the large double doors. Make an immediate LEFT and go to the room labeled ‘chapel’.
